

Simone joined Bousfields as Project Manager – Community Engagement in August 2018, after graduating from the Masters in Urban Planning (MUP'18) program at Harvard Graduate School of Design, with concentrations in Real Estate & Urban Development, as well as Urban Design. Simone proposed economic development strategies for Logan International Airport and East Boston, developed community engagement and public consultation tools for a variety of different stakeholders, and devised an inclusive commercial corridor revitalization plan for a historic Detroit neighbourhood. Prior to joining Bousfields, Simone served as an inaugural member of the Toronto Planning Review Panel at the City of Toronto, and also worked as a Land Development Intern in Brookfield Residential's GTA office.

SIMONE HODGSON
B.A., M.U.P.

PROJECT MANAGER

As a key member of Bousfields' Community Engagement Practice, Simone assists in the preparation of stakeholder engagement plans and public consultation plans, provides communications support, drafts communications materials, and also helps facilitate community consultations for projects across the GTA.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Project Manager August 2018 - Present
Bousfields Inc.
- Land Development Intern May 2017 - August 2017
Brookfield Residential
- Project Member October 2016 - July 2017
HKS/Harvard GSD
- Volunteer Coordinator April 2017 - October 2017
Black in Design 2017 Conference, Harvard GSD
- Events Co-Chair April 2017 - April 2018
Harvard Urban Planning Organization, Harvard GSD

EDUCATION, PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

- Master in Urban Planning, Harvard Graduate School of Design, 2018
- Bachelor of Arts, Geography (Urban Systems), McGill University, 2014
- Student Member, Ontario Professional Planners Institute
- Student Member, Canadian Institute of Planners
- Member, Toronto Planning Review Panel, 2015-2017